151st Anniversary Sunday: Guest Preacher Biography

The Rev. Canon Dr. Angela F. Shepherd is the seventh rector of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, a congregation deeply committed to radical hospitality, social justice, Christian formation, worship, and music. Mother Angela's tenure began in March of 2018 making her the first woman and African American to be called as rector. She is a contemplative, Gospel based strategist who enjoys bringing people closer to God and working with others for the common good. Mother Angela was ordained deacon and priest in 1996. Prior to moving to Atlanta, she enjoyed a rich and wide-ranging ministry in the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland where she served on the Bishop's staff for seven years as Canon for Mission (2010 – 2018) and rector of St. Philip's, Annapolis (1999-2010). Her first call was to St. Augustine's, Youngstown, Ohio where she was vicar (1996-1999). In addition to leading congregations her ordained ministry has included: programs that supported children and youth, chief operation officer for Sutton Scholars High School Enrichment Program, chairperson Truth and Reconciliation Commission, ministries that dismantled racism, cared for the environment, and public policy; working with vestries by leading retreats, workshops and making presentations covering various topics. Angela's commitment to the Episcopal Church extends beyond the nave. Her gifts and skills have been shared in three dioceses and the broader church: Commission on Ministry, Standing Committee, General Convention Deputy in 2003, 2006, 2009, Diocesan Chaplain to Daughters of the King, Diocesan Council, Budget and Finance, Disciplinary Board for Bishops, and the Executive Council Committee on Antiracism. As a public theologian she has given time to a variety of civic boards, marched in rallies, and testified before the state legislature, putting her faith in action. Dr. Shepherd is a lifelong learner, who earned a Doctor of Ministry degree with a concentration in Becoming Beloved Community from McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, Master of Divinity degree from the former Seabury Theological Seminary, Evanston, IL where she received the Field Prize for homiletics. A curiosity for money and faith led to the completion of an Executive Certificate in Religious Fundraising from Indiana University Lilly Family School of Philanthropy. She also holds degrees in human resources development and business administration, and marketing. Angela enjoys exploring the intersection between contemporary Christianity and culture, travel, smooth jazz, houseplants, the outdoors, fine arts, Bikram yoga, and sporting events. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Daughters of the King, Union of Black Episcopalians, and Episcopal Preaching Foundation faculty member.

Opening Acclamation & Collect for Purity

Presider Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

The Collect of Purity

The Presider continues

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

First Reading Acts 1:15-17, 21-26 Zollie Stevenson, Jr.

A Reading from the book of Acts.

In those days Peter stood up among the believers (together the crowd numbered about one hundred twenty persons) and said, "Friends, the scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit through David foretold concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus-- for he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry.

So, one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us-- one of these must become a witness with us to his resurrection." So, they proposed two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also known as Justus, and Matthias. Then they prayed and said, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place." And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias; and he was added to the eleven apostles.

Psalm for the Day

Psalm 1:1-6

Shari Offer

¹ Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, * nor lingered in the way of sinners,
nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

² Their delight is in the law of the Lord, *
and they meditate on his law day and night.

³ They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.

⁴ It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

⁵ Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.

⁶ For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

Second Reading

1 John 5:9-13

Wanda Valentine

A Reading from the first letter of John.

If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son. Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts.

Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life.

Gospel Reading

John 17:6-19

Deacon John Verdon

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus prayed for his disciples, "I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one. While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves. I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth."

Sermon

The Rev. Canon Dr. Angela F. Shepherd
7th Rector of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church,
Atlanta, GA

The Nicene Creed

*The Rev. Randy Callender
Deacon John Verdon*

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit, he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son, he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People Form II Lorraine "Lollie" Thomas

In the course of the silence after each bidding, the People offer their own prayers, either silently or aloud.

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishops, our Rector, our Deacon, for this gathering; and for all ministers and people. Pray for the Church.

Silence

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. Pray for those in any need or trouble.

Silence

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him.
Pray that they may find and be found by him.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the departed [especially _____]. Pray for those who have died.

Silence

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

Silence

Presider

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth:
Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

Presider

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Presider and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Eucharistic Prayer A

- Presider* The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

"Holy, Holy, Holy"

H1982 #S125

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Presider and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Presider and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

Episcopal Prayer Book for the Armed Forces (1988)

Presider Let us pray.

Presider and People

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection; I await your coming in glory. Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

The Blessing

May Christ, who by death has destroyed death, give you all courage and joy in believing through the power of the Holy Spirit; and the blessing of the One, Holy, and Undivided Trinity, Loving Creator, Living Word, and Life-Giving Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

The Closing Hymn

"Praise Him"

LEVAS #98

1 Praise him, praise him, praise him, praise him!
Jesus, blessed Savior, he's worthy to be praised.
From the rising of the sun
until the going down of the same,
he's worthy, Jesus is worthy,
he's worthy to be praised.

2 Glory! Glory! In all things give him glory.
Jesus, blessed Savior, he's worthy to be praised.
For God is our rock,
hope of salvation;
a strong deliverer,
in him I will always trust.

3 Praise him, praise him, praise him, praise him!
Jesus, blessed Savior, he's worthy to be praised.
From the rising of the sun
until the going down of the same,
he's worthy, Jesus is worthy,
he's worthy to be praised.
Praise him, praise him, praise him, praise him!
Jesus, blessed Savior, he's worthy to be praised.

Supporting Ugandan University Student

In 2012, St. Philip's hosted a visit by representatives of the Kasese Community Health and Education Foundation (KCHEF), which at the time was called the Bishop Masereka Christian Foundation. Members of our neighboring church here in Annapolis, St. Luke's Eastport, attended the event and began sponsoring a Ugandan student with KCHEF through a special appeal each year. The young woman they sponsored, Sunniah Ngongzi Magogo, is now 23 years old and completing her undergraduate degree in cytotechnology in the Faculty of Medicine at Makerere University. She has been offered a position in a two-year Master's program to continue her studies this fall, with the goal of working in the field of public health, detecting and diagnosing preventable diseases like cholera.

This year, we are partnering with St. Luke's to raise the funds for Sunniah together. The cost of a full year of tuition and fees is $2,500.

There are two ways to contribute:

1. Give online at www.stlukeseastport.org. Click on "Giving" at the top of the site, create an account with Givelify if you don't already have one, and include the memo "University Student" with your donation.
2. Mail a check with the memo "University Student" to St. Luke's Church, 1101 Bay Ridge Avenue, Annapolis, MD 21403. The deadline to contribute is Sunday, May 30. Any amount raised beyond $2,500 will go to support the general work of KCHEF. Thank you!

Chesapeake Bay Trust (CBT) Community Engagement and Restoration Grant

Good news! St. Philip's Church received a CBT grant award to complete the replenishment of native plants in our hillside conservation landscape (corner of Bestgate and Severn Grove Rds). A big thank you goes out to our mentor on this grant application, the Audubon Naturalist Society (ANS). The grant award amount is just under $3,000, and there are many in-kind contributions included from our partners on this project, Anne Arundel County Watershed Stewards Academy, Living Landscape Solutions (our landscape designer), Woods Memorial Presbyterian Church, Unitarian Universalist Church of Annapolis, and Kol Shalom. The projected date for plant and mulch installation is Saturday, October 16, 2021. Members from St. Philip's are encouraged to volunteer in this effort. We will be adding 584 native plants and shrubs to the garden to reduce stormwater runoff and erosion, support pollinators such as birds and bees, and provide habitat and food for wildlife.

Family and Friends Day Committee

Friends and Family Day is November 14, 2021. Hannah Bulman will be chairing the committee and is looking for members. If you are interested in joining please email her at hannahmarbulman@gmail.com. Once Hannah gets a committee together, she will plan the first meeting. We are looking forward to making this a great event!

Tutoring at Stanton Center

Help is needed for one-on-one tutoring at the Stanton Center. Vaccinated people would be welcomed on Monday-Tuesday & Thursday-Friday at 10am-12:15pm & 1:55pm-3:45pm. Mondays and Tuesdays are most in need. Please contact Barbara Arthur at arthurhome98@comcast.net to volunteer.

Lighthouse Shelter

The Light House Shelter is in dire need of assistance in meeting the needs of those residing in the Annapolis community. Can you help, by making donations directly to the Light House Shelter? Their location is 10 Hudson Street in Annapolis, Maryland. Donations can be dropped off 7 days a week from 7am-7pm. If you have questions, please contact the Light House Shelter directly, at 410-349-5056. Please let them know that you are representing St. Philip's Church and you can receive a receipt, if you need one. THANK YOU for all that you do for your neighbors.

The Shelter needs:

Canned goods such as vegetables, tuna & meats, toiletries, fruit juices, peanut butter & jam, pasta & pasta sauces, rice and beans. Also needed are new washcloths, diapers and pull-ups, disinfectant Wipes, paper towels, napkins and tissues, paper bowls and plastic utensils, new adult and children's hats, gloves, and socks, as well as backpacks, air mattresses, and Pre-Paid phones.

Free Radio Yogi Zoom Yoga Class

Stephanie Gaines-Bryant will be leading her chair yoga classes online via Zoom.com. The classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 AM-10:30 AM and Saturdays at 8:30AM.

It is a 30- minute class for senior citizens, anyone who has physical challenges, and for anyone who wants to keep moving. It is critical for our seniors to remain active during this time. Just 30 minutes twice a week will do wonders for your mental and physical well-being.

A Prayer for Those Affected by the Coronavirus

O God of compassion, giver of life and health, we pray your healing mercies upon all who are in any way affected by the outbreak of the COVID-19 coronavirus. Comfort and sustain those who have been stricken; relieve their pain, and restore to them your gifts of gladness and strength. Grant to all in authority the courage to make wise decisions that are essential for the common good, and strengthen them to lead institutions that care for those whom they serve. Watch over all first responders and those in the medical professions whose duty it is to care for the sick; guard them from all danger, and keep them safe in the knowledge that is through their sacrifice and service that the health of the whole community is promoted.

Mercifully accept these our prayers, O God of all comfort, and our only help in time of need. Amen.

-The Rt. Rev. Eugene Sutton
