A Reading from the Book of Nehemiah

Nehemiah 8:1-3,5-6,8-10

All the people of Israel gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength."

Psalm of the Day

Psalm 19

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God, *and the firmament shows his handiwork.
- 2 One day tells its tale to another, *and one night imparts knowledge to another.
- 3 Although they have no words or language, *and their voices are not heard,
- 4 Their sound has gone out into all lands, *and their message to the ends of the world.
- 5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun; *it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber; it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
- 6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; *nothing is hidden from its burning heat.
- 7 The law of the Lord is perfect and revives the soul; *the testimony of the Lord is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.
- 8 The statutes of the Lord are just and rejoice the heart; *the commandment of the Lord is clear and gives light to the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the Lord is clean and endures for ever; *the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, *sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.
- 11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *and in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can tell how often he offends? *cleanse me from my secret faults.
- 13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me; * then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, * O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

A Reading from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians

1 Corinthians 12:13-31a

Just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit, we were all baptized into one body--Jews or Greeks, slaves or free--and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body.

The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts.

To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

The Gospel According to Luke

Luke 4:14-21

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down.

The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

The Nicene Creed

Presider and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit, he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son, he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The people stand, sit, or kneel.

The Prayers of the People

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;

That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Prayers are said silently or aloud.

Confession of Sin

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Presider and People

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Agenda

I. Call to Order

The Rev. Randy K. Callender

II. Opening Prayer

Almighty and ever living God, source of all wisdom and understanding, be present with us as we take counsel for the renewal and mission of your Church at this Parish Meeting. Teach us in all things to seek first your honor and glory. Design us to reflect your Glory as we rebuild your Church. Fashion our ears to hear new ideas. Shape our hearts to appreciate other's creativity and insight. Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other. Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage. Help us build a place of refuge, a holy temple, with Jesus as the cornerstone. Guide us to perceive what you would have us do, and grant us both the courage to pursue it and the grace to accomplish it. Strengthen the faithful, arouse the careless, and restore the penitent. May we come together as a family of one to be guided by the Father, the Holy Spirit and the Son. Amen.

III. Minutes from the 137th Annual Parish Meeting (2021)

St. Philip's 137th Annual Parish Meeting Minutes

January 24, 2021

A. Call to Order

The Rev. Randy K. Callender presided.

Rev. Callender called the meeting to order at 11:11 am. Rev. Callender stated there were 49 people present in the online congregation. He mentioned that 92% of parishioners surveyed voted to suspend the By-Laws for Annual Meeting 2021 because of the unusual nature of our services and meetings/forums during the Covid-19 pandemic. Because of this, we neither vote, take attendance, nor make motions. He gave directions on meeting protocol managed by the Senior Warden, Hannah Bulman.

B. Opening Prayer

Rev. Callender invited the congregation to pray together [using?] the opening prayer as written in the bulletin.

The Annual Meeting Agenda

C. Rev. Callender presented minutes from the 136th Annual Parish Meeting (2020).

No comments/corrections were made.

D. Rector's Vision for 2021/ COVID-19 Update

"How Do Your Plans Fit Into God's Plan" was the theme of Rev. Callender's vision for 2021. A video of Tony Evans addresses how God wants us to plan and wants us to submit those plans to him, so he may "tweak" and provide the best strategies for us. Rev. Callender mentioned that we take the plans made by the presenters today and ask ourselves how our programs/goals align with God's objectives strategically for St. Philip's. He encouraged all to get the vaccine and mentioned that all clergy would have to be vaccinated before any plans to move forward on in-person services. The Diocese will be guiding Covid-19 protocols.

E. Deacon Corby Goodbye Message

Deacon Corby reminded us about her initial visit to St. Philip's and her journey on becoming a part of the church family. She is awaiting direction from Bp Sutton on her next assignment, and she wishes St. Philip's well in future endeavors. Rev. Callender announced that a gift would be mailed to Deacon Corby on behalf of the Vestry and congregation. Rev. Callender is waiting on what will be next for St. Philip's regarding the selection of a new deacon.

F. Task Force Presentation.

"Moving from Church Survival to Thriving Church" was the theme of the presentation by Rev. Callender and supported by Ms. Carol Hall. The Task Force reached out to several churches with various levels of success. The thriving churches addressed a vital music ministry, finances, and ministry/stewardship. One-on-ones and Zoom meetings will be held in the coming months to hear from this congregation. Carol echoed the importance of an improved stewardship campaign and spreading awareness regularly of where money is being spent. Members of the Task Force included Ms. Rishelle Charles, Ms. Carol Hall, Mrs. Sharon Jones, Mr. Michael Faison, Mrs. Elizabeth Dennis and Mrs. Karen Neale.

G. Role of a Chairperson/150th Anniversary Update

Mrs. Pamela Gentry reviewed the 150 Anniversary campaigns, celebrations, and successes. She reminded us of the committee members and reviewed the importance of the fundraising activities, including stained-glass windows, souvenir journal, perpetual recognition plaque, and name badges.

Pam reminded us of the new church logo, brand, and tagline of "Living Our Faith." She explained the impact of Covid-19 and the conversion to virtual events.

She listed many areas that needed to be considered in planning future events. They included: internal challenges, long-standing styles of operation; hesitation of use of technology; internal focus and not community-oriented; understanding of the Return of Investment (ROI) for all resources; lack of volunteers in the Church, and membership perceived assigned status (The perception that the longer one has been a member of the Church, the more status and influence one should have).

She stated that for this event, "The Bottom Line" Net Profit is $30,596.50.

Pam's recommendations for future events included: establishment of a development chair to coordinate fundraising; and a limit on the number of fundraisers each year.

She explained that establishing a development Chair should give a strategic approach to fundraising. Strategies for chair include but are not limited to: a) fundraising plan with cost analysis; include start-up costs; designated account for the project; b) coordinate a calendar of events; c) demonstrate accountability to members.

Pam continued by advocating for a limited number of annual fundraisers. "We will need the following support: maintaining updated mailing/email lists, electronic communication and sales, robust promotion via email and social media, long-range planning for significant events, website promotion, and post events debriefing."

God of our coming and going, God of our past, our present, and our future, we have met, we have celebrated, we have remembered. We also have shared visions, shared hopes, and dreamed dreams. And now we go out into the world in which we do most of our living and our ministering. As we go out, remind us that we do not go alone. As we go out, remind us that we go with a mission. As we go out, fill us with love, hope, and peace to share with the world. May our lives and our ministry be signs of your love and promises and possibility for the world. Amen.

"On the other side of the storm"

"Courage, my soul, and let us journey on, Tho' the night is dark it won't be very long. Thanks be to God, the morning light appears, And the storm is passing over, Hallelujah!"

Charles Albert Tindley, is the author to the spiritual song, "The Storm Is Passing Over." It is a song that gives me waves of joy, and every morning I am tempted to sing it on my walks in the park. I look forward to the Sunday, when I am dancing at my seat on the altar, listening to our unmasked choir, singing with joy, "The storm is passing over, Hallelujah!"

Yes, the storm of COVID-19 will soon be passing over, (As I pray that no other variants will emerge) and the church will certainly be in a new place.

A virus that has shaken up our world, and has forced us to stay indoors, will soon loosen the locks of our fears, as we begin to open up the doors of hope and new beginnings. Here at St. Philip's Church, we will soon have the opportunity to do new and exciting ministries on the other side of the storm as we regathering at full capacity in the church and continue to be engaged with our brothers and sisters in the Annapolis Community. But first, we will need to focus on healing from all of the effects, that this pandemic has caused in our lives.

I am approaching my tenth year as St. Philip's Rector (July 2022) and I am realizing that many of us are COVID fatigued and that we are dealing with a lot of stress. I also noticed that many of us, want our lives and our church, to go back to, "the way that we have always done it," but those days are gone.

It is time for us to "Courage, our souls, and let us journey on," because God is about to do something new in our lives and also within St. Philip's Church, and we have to be ready with opened eyes and unclogged ears to see and hear the transformation that God has instore.

It is time for us to let go of our fears and grab ahold of our faith, that the other side of the storm will lead us towards a promising future. Yes, we will make mistakes as we move into this new world and ministries that we love will change. Even the church as we know it, will never be the same. Yet I am affirmed, that in our changing world, God is doing something new and that we are being called in this time of health and vitality to step into that new thing.

It has become clear to me, as I review the great work from the Task Force and the listening sessions on zoom, that the ministries we are envisioning are ministries of discernment (to explore and prayerfully act on the Spirit's leading) and ministries of discipleship (to deepen our identity and practice of following Jesus in all we do and to have the tools to share this faith).

You are hungry for God and you want to invite others to be a part of our spiritual and physical growth at St. Philip's Church.

Reviewing the Task Force work and your ask, I understand that we didn't live into all of the things that we wanted to complete in 2021, yet I still see those amazing ministries coming into fruition. Our budget for 2022, is higher than any other year, since I have been your Rector and that is an amazing start to the things to come.

My hope for 2022, is that you will return back to the sanctuary filled with hopeful eyes and will be ready to receive the spiritual food, that many of us have been missing for the last two years. Also, invite someone to join you on the other side of the storm here at St. Philip's Church.

"Soon we shall reach the distant shining shore, Free from all the storms we'll rest forevermore. Safe within the veil, we'll furl the riven sail, And the storms will all be over, Hallelujah!"

The Rev. Randy K. Callender, Rector

Deacon John Verdon Report: Twelve Month Period Ended 12-31-2021

I was blessed transfer to St Philip's on February 7, 2021. During 2021 accomplished the following objectives:

- Preach Monthly
- Attend Monthly Finance Committee Meetings
- Attend Vestry Meetings
- Lead Bible Studies as needed
- Lead Wednesday Prayer meetings as needed.
- Attend ACT Training

In addition to the items listed above I have been actively pursuing a business idea for St Phillips. To that end I have briefed the Vestry on a HUD program that provides housing for developmentally disabled adults. The Vestry approved the idea and I have pulled together the particulars of the program and will be discussing it with Fr. Callender and the Vestry in the 1st Quarter of 2022. Finally, I have been developing a program for new members that is designed to introduce people seeking a church home to the Episcopal Church. The program is 4- 6 months in length and ends with the candidate being received into the church by the bishop. The idea is to start the program in September/October 2022.

Senior Warden Report 2021

This past year was focused on a lot of following the Dioceses' guidelines regarding Covid protocols. We started the year with the church being closed, and by summer we were able to open at 100% and fully masked. However, by August we were taken back to 35 people able to gather at each service. As the year went on, we were finally back to being at 100%, and decided to take service off of Zoom by the end of the year. It has been another year of pivoting services, and without the support of the congregation, we would not have been able to do so so seamlessly. I spent this year on Clergy/Warden checks in with the Bishop Sutton and his staff finding out what other churches in the Diocese of Maryland have been doing. Another big project that I was a part of this past year was holding interviews to find someone to be the Assistant to the Rector, this is currently an ongoing project. With the support of church members, we have been able to have people in the office to help out. These last two years as Senior Warden have taught me a lot, and I feel very fortunate to have been able to hold this position. I could not have done it without the support of the Vestry as well as the members of St. Philip's.

Family and Friends Day Committee

This year's Family and Friends Day Committee was made up of Sharon Jones, Aliceteen Magnum, Tawana Offer, Margot Flood, Joan McCullough, Zollie Stevenson Jr. and myself. The committee started meeting in May of 2021, hoping that we could have a huge "Welcome Back to Church" service. The service ended up being prerecorded, and the Rev. Adrian Dawson from All Saints in Fredrick, MD was the homilist. We had two fundraisers, the first was selling engraved pavers to be placed around the Columbarium, and the second was selling St. Philip's cookbooks. Both fundraisers were received by the congregation very well.

Please contact me if you are interested in being a part of this ministry. Currently, there is an urgent need for new members and/or decorators. Special thanks to Clifton Johnson, Jr, "CJ" and Peggy Randall for assisting with the decorating for the Christmas Season.

The Bereavement Committee is currently being revamped. We will be having ongoing discussions to determine next steps for this committee.

2021 ANNUAL REPORT

We thank you for serving at the 8:00 AM and the 10:30 AM services. Our responsibility is to schedule readers for the two services and other special occasions. You are doing a wonderful job. We could use a few more readers at the 10:30 AM service. If you are interested, please let us know. Yes, we still need you.

ACOLYTE GUILD

2021 ANNUAL REPORT

A new year and again we begin our report with a plea for help. We need acolytes. We thank our young people and our adult acolytes. Can you give us one Sunday a month? Training will be provided. Please, we still need you. We have added one new youth Acolyte this year, Cydney Edwards. This year, during the Instructed Eucharist Service, on October 24th, Cydney modeled her Acolyte vestments. Also, her grandmother, Lollie Thomas modeled her LEM vestments and lastly, Velma McCullough modeled her Verger vestments. It was a great learning experience,

St Philip's Men's Club
2021 Annual Report*

Men's Club

The Men's Club was once again faced with pandemic related issues as we tried to support the church's programs and services. However, we were able to successfully accomplish some of our customary activities.

In June, we provided our three high school seniors with monogrammed Bibles and cash gifts of $200 each, in recognition of their graduations. Also in June, for Father's Day, we recognized one of our own as Father of the Year and presented him with a personalized plaque at the 10:30 worship service.

Many of our members facilitated the Drive Through Crab Feast in August, that benefitted the church's treasury. During October's Clergy Appreciation Month, we provided gifts to the Rector and Deacon, as well as a recognition card for our DOV Intern.

For Thanksgiving, we continued our yearly participation with the Anne Arundel Department of Social Services' Holiday Sharing Program by providing a turkey and over a week's worth of food to five needy area families and their 10 children.

For the Christmas Holiday Sharing Program we assisted another five families and their fifteen children. In addition to providing turkeys and food, Men's Club members and/or their families provided gifts and gift cards for all the children and cash donations for the adults.

*Prayerfully submitted,
Orion Jones*

All men of the church are considered to be Men's Club members and are encouraged to participate.

Episcopal Church Women of St. Philip's Church Annual Meeting Report for 2021

The Year 2021 involved far fewer opportunities to gather or to fundraise due to the continuing COVID pandemic. There was no Lenten Fellowship get-together; nor any Santa Party.

As with last year, we provided stamped Mother's Day cards for inmates at the Detention Center – thanks to Sharon Jones.

Our Mother-of-the-Year award returned, and Pam Gentry was celebrated with flowers, a plaque, and cards. There was no Father's Day breakfast this year.

ECW presented our high school graduates with a token, spending about $300. Several members, along with some members of the Men's Club, continued with the Phone Visitation Ministry – thanks to Joyce Baden and Rose Thompson.

In October we recognized our clergy. Father Callender and Deacon John received gift cards and appreciation cards were given to Intern Mike and Father John as well.

As we have done for many years, 50 stamped Christmas cards were provided to inmates at the Detention Center -again thanks to Sharon Jones.

Although the usual ECW events could not take place, the Ladies of St. Philip's were nevertheless active with donating to the Lighthouse Shelter, helping with the Rain Garden, and participating with the Town Halls, Family and Friends Day Committee, and ACT.

ECW sincerely hopes that we can soon gather (Zoomless) and resume our activities and fellowship.

St. Philips Episcopal Church
2021 Property Management Report
Rectory
1975 Severn Grove Road Annapolis, Maryland 21401

2021 Summary

Security Deposit on hand - $1895.00 (before interest)

Monthly Rent: $2,245.00

Income: $26,940.00

Repairs: $_____ Completed in December 2021

Net Revenue of: $_____

Current Lease Agreement

Annual Lease Agreement was switched to Month to Month. Management Company switched to Month-to-Month Lease in anticipation of the Rectory switching from a rental property to an income driven investment for St. Philips Episcopal Church. If there is no movement by the church to change the Rectory by August 2022, then an increase of 7% or $2400 monthly will be requested in the renewal agreement of September 1 2022- August 31, 2023. All new equipment purchased for the property will have property ownership stickers and dated. The current tenant has indicated they would like to stay. Projected 2022 Income- $27,560 before repairs.

Annual Inspection & Repairs

Annual inspection was held in October. Last year we focused on the essentials. We had a pre-inspection to consider central air installation. We will look to plan for this within the next few years if the Vestry decides to continue renting property to families or other revenue venture. The back storm door is still on back order since last year, we hope to replace this year estimated cost + labor is $450.00. We will replace 4 air conditioners in the house this year for an estimated cost of $160. Kitchen Stove will be replaced in February 2022 for an estimated cost of $800. Basement Humidifier will be replaced at an estimated cost of $300.00. Basement floor remained unpainted and no additional costs for 2021. However, addition costs may incurred. Any other repairs have yet to be determined.

First, as we sang in Psalm 24 the earth is the LORD's and everything in it (Psalm 24:1) – so how we spend our money, use our possessions, cultivate our abilities IS God's business. Second, God has loaned us his property, not to use as we wish, but according to the will of the owner. And third, he will return and will call us to account for how we have managed his possessions. Those are the principles we will keep in mind as we consider the 7th commandment. In which God himself gives us a lesson in finance; teaching us Christian property management – that we are to manage our hearts and our possessions and leave the rest to God.

ST. PHILIP'S COMMUNITY OUTREACH and ENGAGEMENT DURING 2021

St. Philip's parishioners and Fr. Callender spent part of Sunday afternoon after Tornado Ida tore through Annapolis visiting with residents of Annapolis Gardens who were affected. Wearing masks and gloves, parishioners helped pick-up tree limbs and sticks and bagged debris including many small pieces of roofing in the community's common area. The city had provided hamburgers and hot dogs that residents grilled and invited St. Philip's to enjoy as well while social distancing.

Parishioners included participants on the Community Engagement Team established in 2021 as the result of the St. Philip's Town Halls.

Additionally, St. Philip's parishioners responded to the Light House Shelter's call for Thanksgiving Boxes for families not living at the Shelter. Parishioners directly delivered their boxes comprised of items that the Light House listed including a sheet of paper indicating the donator's church or organization.

St. Philip's parishioners also contributed to Anne Arundel Connecting Together (ACT) Teams during 2021: One was the Team that worked to obtain substantial County funds to support establishment of "Turnaround Thursday" in the greater Annapolis area. It also secured partners with ACT-- Luminus Health in Annapolis and the Maryland Re-Entry Resource Center. The effort will prepare returning citizens, who have served time, with the training and counseling needed to maintain living-wage jobs and help uplift communities similar to "Turnaround Tuesday" in Baltimore. Another was an ACT Team on which St. Philip's parishioners monitored equity in Anne Arundel County Public Schools during the 2021 school year.
