

*Around the World
Shrove Tuesday
Trivia*

Question 1

In what country are thick small pancakes called “pikelets”?

Question 1

In what country are thick small pancakes called “pikelets”?

Australia

Question 2

What type of soup do Swedes eat with their pancakes?

Question 2

What type of soup do Swedes eat with their pancakes?

Pea Soup

Question 3

Which of these items are baked into pancakes in Canada?

Question 3

Which of these items are baked into pancakes in Canada?

All of them

Question 4

What animal do children dress up as while eating pancakes in Denmark?

Question 4

What animal do children dress up as while eating pancakes in Denmark?

Cats

Question 5

How many meals to
Lithuanians eat on Shrove
Tuesday?

Question 5

How many meals to
Lithuanians eat on Shrove
Tuesday?

12

Question 6

What country calls the
Thursday before Ash
Wednesday the Day of the Omelette?

Question 6

What country calls the
Thursday before Ash
Wednesday the Day of the Omelette?

Spain
Día de la Tortilla

Question 7

In Iceland, Shrove Tuesday is called “Sprengidagur”. What does that translate to ?

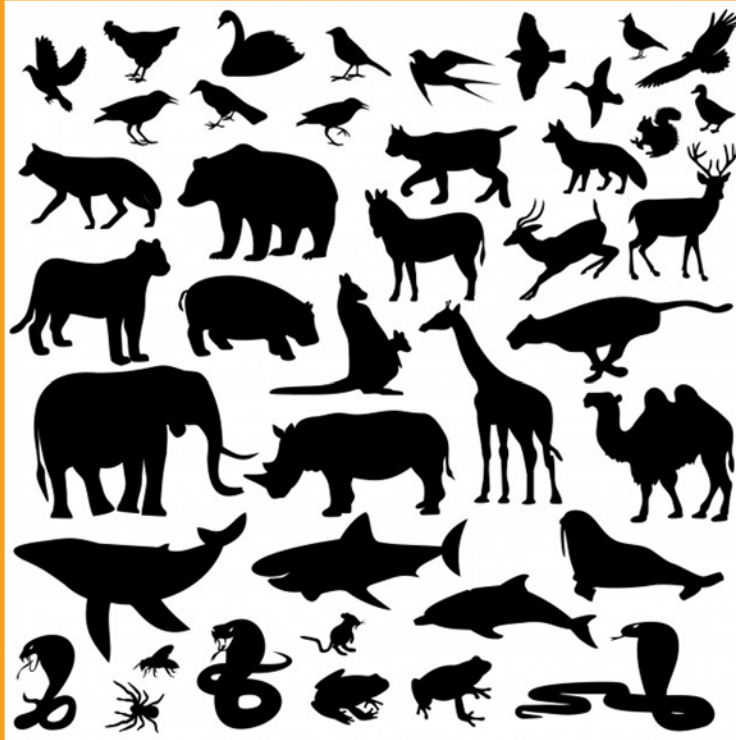

Question 7

In Iceland, Shrove Tuesday is called “Sprengidagur”. What does that translate to ?

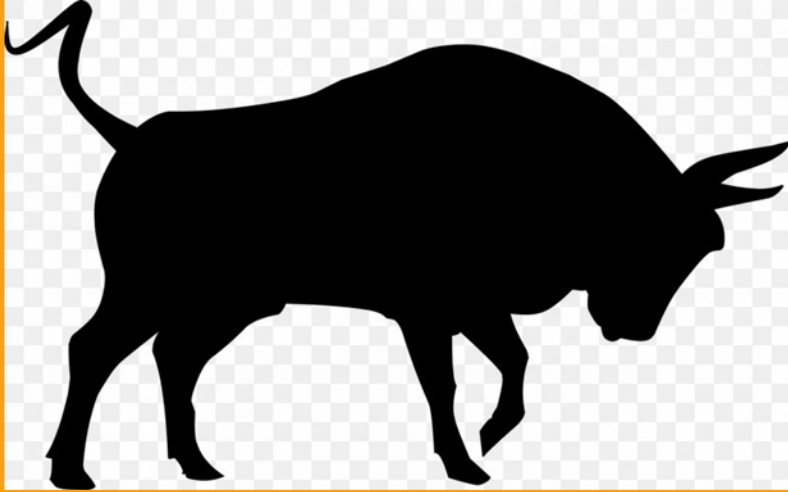

Bursting Day

Question 8

What animal is paraded through the street of France?

Question 8

What animal is paraded through the street of France?

Ox

Question 9

What side dish is served with pancakes in Poland?

Question 9

What side dish is served with pancakes in Poland?

Herring

Question 10

How many eggs are used on Shrove Tuesday in the UK?

Question 10

How many eggs are used on Shrove Tuesday in the UK?

52 Million